Bull Elk Too Ornerly, Forfeits State Protection

DURANGO, Colo. (U.P.)—A 27-year-old bull elk which apparently concluded it was too old to forage for itself brought on its own death near here through sheer meanness.

The huge old animal, believed one of a consignment of 23 calves brought here from the Jackson Hole country in Wyoming in 1912, took possession of a rancher's feed lot and allowed no other livestock or even the rancher to penetrate his well-provisioned domain.

Game officials, called in to settle the dispute, observed the bull's stiffness, quarrelsomeness, and other indications of infirmity, and sent a bullet into its brain.

This spring, Lanoix lifted his manhole cover, dropped lines in the "pool" and hooked several legal-sized trout.

Trout Hooked at Home In Underground Stream

ROCHESTER, N. H. (U.P.)—Gustav Lanoix is an ardent fisherman. When an underground stream, cutting beneath the lawn of his home, caused a section of the turf to collapse leaving a 20-foot hole, Lanoix repaired the damage with a conduit and a manhole.

This spring, Lanoix lifted his manhole cover, dropped lines in the "pool" and hooked several legal-sized trout.

TARTAR GRID SQUAD CUT DOWN TO TWO ELEVENS

Last week's torrid weather kept Coach Robert Barr's Tartar varsity gridgers off the sun-baked turf of Torrance high school field but this week, with cooler weather and a field cushioned by the rains, he was giving his squad hard workouts each afternoon to make up for the enforced delay in its piskin education.

But Barr's face was lengthening with disappointment as ineligibilities, injuries and pull-outs reduced his prospects to barely enough to make two full teams. In his opinion, the Tartars' chances of retaining the Marine league football championship are going faster than the wind which drove the sun off its attack on Southern California.

His worst blow was a double-barreled stunner: Both David Jacobs and Harold Jackson, best prospects for varsity center, were ruled ineligible to compete this year in Marine competition. Barr must now depend on boys who have more than a lot to learn about the art of passing the ball back to the receiver.

Then Ner Rathbun pulled a muscle which is keeping him out of his tackle berth. Richard Thompson, another tackle, told Barr this week that he would have to give up football this year and left the squad.

"I can see right now," the mentor said, "that we're going thru the season with a prayer. We can only hope that our opponents will be easy on us and keep the number of injuries down to below par."

While Barr was bemoaning his early season misfortunes, Coach Pete Zamponi was drilling his Bee squad for intramural games. He has picked Bruno Giacomo and Harold Jackson to captain the two teams that will play games among themselves every Thursday afternoon during the grid season. Bruno is the passer who spark-plugged the 1937 Tartars in critical moments. He is ineligible this year on account of the 19-year age ruling.

Safeway Parking Lot Reached Thru Alley

Patrons of the new Safeway Store at Sartori avenue and El Prado may enter the parking lot in the rear of the store by way of the alley between Sartori and Cravens, Manager James Rahl said today. El Prado is closed during the Factory Frolic but the alley is open from Marcelina.

Four More Officials Get Trips to S. F.

Four more members of the "city family" will enjoy trips to San Francisco at the city's expense when J. O. Bishop and Alfred Banje will attend the state civil service convention as delegates from the Torrance civil service board, and Police Chief John Stroh and Police Judge Robert Lessing were authorized to attend the state police chiefs convention. The council approved this representation at Tuesday night's meeting.

Golf Tourney at P. V. Open to All

A Southern Cities Golf Championship, open to any player living or working in Torrance, Lomita, Gardena, Inglewood, Hawthorne, Lennox or Lawndale, will be held at Palos Verdes Country club, Oct. 9 to Nov. 5, it was announced this week by Al Gruber, club pro.

Entrants may qualify any day from Oct. 9 to 16, inclusive and the first round match is scheduled from Oct. 17 to 24 inclusive. One round will be played each week. A second flight will be held, composed of the defending eight players in the championship flight.

Finals in all flights will be played Sunday, Nov. 5, Gruber said. There will be prizes awarded in all flights and entries should be sent to Gruber, care of the Palos Verdes Golf Shop, phone Redondo Beach 712. The entry fee is $1 and the green fee will be 50 cents per round.

Scouts Serve As 'Frolic Police'

All Torrance Boy Scouts are Factory Frolic policemen and are now busily engaged in "arresting" residents who appear minus the official blue jeans or aprons. They have established a "kangaroo court" in front of the Scout hall on El Prado and a corps of "judges" will work, regular shifts thru Saturday night administering "justice."

A large open-air bullpen has been erected to confine violators of the Frolic code. The Scouts' activities will not be so officious as last year, however, and they will be supervised by Scoutmaster Merton Gilbert of Troop 219.

Cycle Races for Boys Saturday

Boy-bicyclists who want to know how fast they can travel over a seven-mile course should enter the races to be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. These will start on El Prado and will be in three divisions.

Cyclists from 10 to 12 years are in Class C; from 12 to 16 are in Class B and from 16 to 19 in Class A. Prizes are to be awarded winners and George Figueredo is in charge of the event.

STATE PICNICS

NEW ENGLAND... The annual picnic reunion for New Englanders will be held in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, Saturday, Oct. 7. Each state will have its own section in the park and will open county registers. Boston baked beans, genuine Vermont maple syrup and hot coffee will be served.
